Excerpt: . . . called for a comprehensive assessment and reporting system to ensure Head Start produces positive outcomes; Dr. Marnie S. Shaul, Director, Education, Workforce and Income Security Issues, U. S. General Accounting Office, Washington, DC, discussed that while Head Start is key among the array of early childhood programs, there is no national research on the effectiveness of the program. There are studies that show that the skills of Head Start children have improved, but there is no definitive evidence that this improvement is related to participation in the program. A comprehensive study is expected to be completed by 2006: Ms. Amy Wilkins, Executive Director, Trust for Early Education, Washington, DC, linked between qualified teachers to better outcomes for students and also discussed the importance of strong coordination between Federal and State policies and funding to a successful Head Start program and called; Ms. Janis Santos, Executive Director of the Holyoke- Chicope-Springfield Head Start Center, Springfield, Massachusetts recommended enhanced teacher qualifications for Head Start teachers and stronger collaboration and...
