Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .San Francisco in the Sixties, the Summer of Love, the birth of the hippies, experience it for yourself in More San Fran 60s, a collection of autobiographical short stories and a continuation of San Fran 60s. San Francisco in the Sixties was the epicenter of the biggest cultural transformation of the second half of the Twentieth Century, and of course it has had its histories and memoirs, but this is the only time a participant has used the devices of literary fiction to put you there, living it. Like San Fran 60s, More San Fran 60s is darker, edgier, and more intimate than anything on the subject before. In addition to sex, drugs, and rock n roll, there is murder, madness, and God. One of the murders officially ends the Summer of Love. Jim Morrison makes an appearance, as do William Burroughs and Janis Joplin in the San Fran 60s. And it all really happened. The stories are based on my journals and experiences and there is less invention than in many memoirs. I have lived in and around San Francisco since 1965 and present myself, friends, and acquaintances as prime specimens. In the Sixties and Seventies, I was a free lance journalist, among other things. Now I am a retired English teacher. In one of these stories set at the first hip outdoor rock concert, headlined by the Doors, the chick he didn t dare even fantasize about has chosen him. Or has she? In another story, a groupie falls in love with a guy with short hair. Another story is a character study of a neocon spanning four decades from Sixties San Francisco through atrocity-ravaged Guatemala...
