Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Miona is used to getting in trouble. At home, besides her human nanny and her master s big chauffeur, everyone seems to love nothing better than to pick on her. School is even worse, and she collects detentions, and scuffles with the class bully. And just when she thinks the weekend is about to free her of him and his goons, a bad decision ruins that hope in the worst of ways. And a few days later when she thinks she has her revenge on the gang, she in fact sets herself up for much deeper trouble. The kind that would make her master angry at her, but could also just simply ruin his career, and threaten a fragile peace between the main species of the planet. This time it is going to take more than her furry friends help to get Miona out of it alive. She ll need all her wits and her strong sword fighting skills. And something else too, a very special talent she never knew she had. Excerpts: FLYING BACK FROM SCHOOL: What are you doing? Ruhul tried to stop her, but he could only grab the top of her skirt. She was already halfway through, her hands and head resting on the copilot seat, her stomach on its headrest, and her legs on the luggage compartment. He pulled on the skirt to try to force her back into the passenger compartment, but the fabric gave a warning sound so he eased up on it. Soon he had to let go to slow down their speed. You re going to kill us. Go back to the passenger cabin at once!...
