Practical work in the dissecting-room, the laboratory, and at the bedside, demonstrations, clinics, and recitations will form the most prominent features of the methods of instruction. Conferences or seminary methods will also be employed. The charge for tuition will be two hundred dollars per annum. There will be no extra charges for instruction in any department, or for laboratory courses except for material consumed. For the present, no student will be admitted to advanced standing. Hearers, not candidates for a degree, will be received at the discretion of the Faculty. As candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine the school will receive: 1. Those who have satisfactorily completed the chemical-biologic course which leads to the A.B. degree in this University. 2. Graduates of approved colleges or scientific schools who can furnish evidence: a, That they have a good reading knowledge of French and German; b. That they have such knowledge of physics, chemistry, and biology as is imparted by the regular minor course given in these subjects in this University.1 3. Those who give evidence by examination that they possess the general education implied by a degree in arts or in science from an approved college or scientific school, and the knowledge of French, German, physics, chemistry, and biology already indicated. Ophthalmic Section, American Medical Association.--The time for the annual meeting of the American Medical Association (June 6th to 9th, at Milwaukee, Wis.) is so near at hand that all members who wish...
