Neuware - Diploma Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject Business economics - Investment and Finance, grade: 1,1, European Business School - International University Schloß Reichartshausen Oestrich-Winkel (Finanzwirtschaft & Rechnungswesen), course: Stiftungslehrstuhl für Bank- und Finanzmanagement, language: English, abstract: Inhaltsangabe: Abstract: Over the last decade product and factor markets have continued to become more integrated, new markets have emerged and the globalization has become an important strategic issue for companies. As a result, international investment opportunities have increased while regulatory restrictions on capital markets have been eased and the market for corporate control has become more integrated. Consequently, the international acquisition activity has increased in both absolute and relative terms over the last decades leading to a significant rise of the proportion of international to domestic merger activity, particularly at the end of the 1990s. As more and more companies consider international diversification as a strategic option for their further growth, the question arises which valuation consequences accompany cross-border acquisitions. Furthermore, it is to be analyzed whether these consequences differ systematically from domestic acquisitions and what could be possible...
