I had more than I could do when I was commissioner and was glad to be relieved by any one that would help me out. President Marshall--I am inclined to think that it is not a privilege that the commissioners are asking for but rather that a proper record be kept of each certificate issued. Mr Sullivan--I am glad you make that suggestion. In the next blank for trustees annual report, we will make provision for a record to be filled out by the teacher of the number of certificates issued, the name of each child, the age and attendance so that there will come to the commissioner at the close of the year an exact record of...
