Reviews

These kinds of book is every thing and helped me hunting forward plus more. It is probably the most remarkable book we have read through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

There can be no confidence in the present or for the future until this mortgage of the past is lifted. Here we proclaim the Gospel of the Cross. He made him, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. With the cross on the horizon behind him, the pardoned sinner may confidently regard the crisis before him. But now he finds sin a power dominating him within. Redemption must deal with the dynamic as well as with the debt of sin. Forgiveness is something more than the canceling of a bond; it is the capitalizing of the life. And here we must proclaim the vital side of the Gospel, viz., The Gift of the Holy Spirit. This phase of the Gospel is very prominent in the New Testament, but it has fallen into a very secondary emphasis in modern preaching. And even where the importance of the Holy Spirit is preached, it seems to be separated from the Gospel of forgiveness. We hold firmly to the Cross, and then treat the presence of the Spirit in the life with its sovereign power as something supplementary to the Gospel of salvation. It is very desirable but something secondary and in the main for the select from...
