

The living age Volume 39

By Eliakim Littell

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 756 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 1.5in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: . . . of all, however, is the news from the colonel, just published by the Asiatic Society. He writes, that he prepared and sent off some months ago a careful narrative of his proceedings, but the mail was plundered on its way by the Anezeh Arabs, and the whole of the foreign correspondence distributed among these marauders, who are said to be now wearing the unknown Babylonish characters as amulets. In the brief account since forwarded, we read of the discovery of additional historical records, which fill up gaps in the former results; and of a splendid ruin, named Abu Shahrein, in Southern Chaldea, apparently full of marbles and sculptures. Thus another mine of antiquities appears to be opening; but, besides this, Colonel Rawlinson describes what he calls his real treasurehouse of discovery; he says, I have found fragments of alphabets, syllabaria, and explanations of ideographic signs. In...

READ ONLINE

[6.04 MB]

Reviews

An extremely awesome pdf with lucid and perfect reasons. I was able to comprehend everything using this published pdf. You can expect to like how the blogger compose this pdf.

-- Miss Peggie Sanford I

A fresh electronic book with a brand new perspective. It is actually rally exciting through reading period of time. I am easily will get a enjoyment of looking at a composed pdf.

-- Eleanore Ernser