Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The World Crisis and Missionary Work We are met at a time of unparalleled significance in the history of the American Board. In any ordinary year the changes in our constitution would have afforded us a topic of interested discussion. By that change representatives chosen by our churches for responsibility in all of our denominational interests are brought into the corporate membership of the Board. This year as our anxious minds press forward we give but a passing word to this most important event in our inner history. That word is one of profoundest gratitude that in the providence of God in this crisis of our work we can rest back upon the counsel and sympathy and support of our whole church. If ever those called upon to administer this work had need of such sympathy in their responsibility it is today.
