

Jo's Dream: The Riveting Story of a Young Woman's Journey from Despair to Hope (Paperback)

By Dorothy Dart

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Set in the Australian Outback this is the fast-paced, dramatic story of twenty-five year old Jo Lacey, an Australian volunteers abroad nurse who arrives home after having been incarcerated in a Zimbabwean rebel stronghold for three years, to find everything has changed. She has lost her faith, she has lost her fiancé, Karl, who thinking she has been killed has married someone else, and she has lost her innocence, and in its place hugs to her heart a terrible secret. On her return to Tinoonan , her father's sheep station, she unwittingly finds herself the cause of an altercation between two men who hate one another; the one, her father's right-hand man, Blake Langley, who is almost disturbingly unassuming, the other, Morgan Templeton, a handsome, egotistical, pony-tailed geologist who tries to make a pass at her, but is struck down by Blake. Glad to escape after a couple of weeks Jo returns to the city, assumes a false name to preserve her anonymity, takes a job as carer to Mandy, a brain-damaged child, and...
