Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (chair of the subcommittee) presiding. Ms. Ros-Lehtinen. We are here today to discuss a very tragic situation - an issue marked by the gradual destruction of a culturally and ethnically diverse population. The issue, of course, is the crisis that continues to brew in Sudan. A country rich in people and in resources, Sudan has been unable to realize its potential due to over 40 years of civil strife. Throughout its troubled history, over 1 million people have died and over 2.5 million have been wounded or displaced. Recent years have seen an escalation of this conflict with indiscriminate bombings of civilians and religious persecution, causing an incredible growth of Sudanese fleeing to safety in other countries. Currently, international aid agencies working close to the borders report further...
