Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Alumnae, Graduate School, Yale University, 1894-1920 The occasion of this little pamphlet is the reunion of the women who have received higher degrees from Yale during the twenty-six years in which her doors have been open to them. During that time one hundred and twenty women have received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy; five, the Master of Arts; three, the Master of Science; and two, the Certificate in Public Health - a total of only one hundred and thirty. It is, therefore, the more gratifying to find among our Alumnae, two college presidents, and one acting college president, five deans, and twenty-five heads of departments and full professors, while twenty-one are listed in Who's Who in America. Of the remaining, many have carried on their work informally. Several of the twenty-six who have married are continuing scientific or literary work with their husbands. Four have married members of the Yale faculty; five, Yale Doctors of Philosophy; one, a Yale Master of Science; and one, a Yale Master of Arts. The biographical notes which follow, give but the barest record, listing, as they do, publications, positions held, and only occasional personal notes. They have been prepared chiefly from the alumnae record cards made out by the individuals, and hence lack something of uniformity. As the purpose of these notes is to give a summary of work, rather than detailed information, we have hesitated to trouble busy women with a second letter to achieve no greater end than consistency. They cannot touch upon the personal qualities, and the non-professional achievements, which are, in many cases, the richest part of the lives of our alumnae. Even...
