He received his early education in the schools of Monroe, and entered the University of Michigan, graduating with the class of 1892. Three years later he was graduated from the law department of the university, and went to Detroit, where he has since resided. In 1895 he entered the law offices of Russel Campbell. Five years later he was admitted a member of that firm, the form of which was changed to Russel, Campbell Bulkley. In 1912, Henry Russel withdrew from active membership, but retaining his connection, as counsel. At this time the firm name was again changed, and became Campbell, Bulkley and Ledyard. In August, 1899, Mr. Bulkley married Cora Strong Flint, daughter...
