He was so struck by their beauty that he altered his course, and took them home to his wife, who had no children She was transported with joy when he placed them in her hands. They admired together the wonderful stars, the chains of gold that could not be taken off their necks, and their long ringlets. Much greater was the woman s astonishment when she combed them, for at every instant there rolled out of their hair pearls, rubies, diamonds, and emeralds. She told her husband of it, who was not less surprised than herself. I am very tired, said he. of a Corsair s life, and if the locks of those little children continue to supply us with such treasures, I will give up roaming the seas, The Corsair s wife, whose...
