

Regional Economic Outlook: Middle East and Central Asia - April 2008

By Unkown Author

International Monetary Fund (IMF). Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Regional Economic Outlook: Middle East and Central Asia - April 2008, Unkown Author, The Middle East and Central Asia region grew at 6.5 percent in 2007, marking its best five-year performance over the past 30 years. So far, the turmoil in international financial markets has had a limited impact on the region, and the short-term outlook remains very favorable. The report reviews recent economic developments, assesses the outlook for the coming year, and discusses key policy challenges. In addition, it takes a closer look at both regional topics--such as the rise in inflation in the GCC countries, intraregional capital flows, developments in oil markets, developments in real estate prices, and sovereign wealth funds--and country reviews for Algeria, Georgia, Iraq, and West Bank and Gaza.
